  - Need to get things sorted out with Nole Central
  - Race insurance: probably the same people as last year
- Alexa: I started reaching out to people for potential sponsors
  - Talking to someone right now who has done work with us before with Loot Crates
  - Stay tuned for more sponsors to come
  - Spoke with Natalie about making a post to see if people want to sponsor through a link
- Natalie: I made the poster to promote the 5k, made it with the FSU spear where there is a potential copyright issue; can make another design if there are any issues with that
  - I talked with Alexa about making a sponsorship post
- Alexis: I finished a prototype of the logo animation for a teaser trailer
  - I have updated a list of people to email in other chapters, will send out this week for reference in the future
- Alexea: I'm pretty sure we've picked out vendors for the shirts, medals, and chip-timing services
  - We're gonna do the logo on one side of the medal with the spear and MCATDT on one side of the medal lanyard
  - My next task is sorting out the boxes and materials that go in; We should have enough boxes for virtual packs

Poster Spear Discussion: it has a great look

- See if there is another design we can use as a back-up
- We might be fine to use the spear since we aren't selling anything with the poster
  - That said, we are putting a link for people to register with on the poster
- We could contact someone with FSU PR to ask for permission to use the spear
